Oques Grasses

The great musical phenomenon EXCLUSIVE TOUR 2025

Oques Grasses has marked a before and after in the music of our country, becoming an unprecedented phenomenon. They collect awards and gold and platinum records since they released in 2019 "Fans del Sol" and in 2021 "A tope amb la vida" and have even achieved the attendance record at the Palau Sant Jordi with 18,400 people.

In 2024, they surprised with their new album "Fruit del Deliri", which became the best debut of a catalan album in the history of Spotify and already accumulated more than 30 million plays. The new songs accompanied by an apotheotic live performance, have sold out tickets throughout the territory.

This 2025, Oques Grasses prepares an exclusive tour for large stages throughout the Spanish territory, in which they will continue to excite and drag crowds with their incomparable talent.

Stay Homas

Sold out for the farewell concerts at the Poble Espanyol

Considered as one of the great headliners of our country, Stay Homas have captivated millions of people around the world. From their humble beginnings on the terrace to their most multitudinous concerts on stages all over Europe, Latin America and Spain; the Catalan group has earned the recognition of the national, state and international music scene.

After 5 intense years, full of memorable concerts all over the world, 2 albums and 2 EP's with a collection of songs that have enchanted all audiences - including great artists such as Rubén Blades, Manu Chao or Michael Bublé - , gold and platinum records, and a lot of awards; Stay Homas says goodbye to the big stages indefinitely with three special sold-out concerts at the Poble Espanyol in Barcelona.

Buhos

A headliner full of attitude NEW ALBUM AND PRESENTATION TOUR 2024

Consolidated as the festive reference of the national musical lines up, Buhos surprise us again this 2025 with a new album that we will be enjoying live in an extensive tour that will fill the main stages and festivals of Spain with the energy and party of the group from Calafell (Barcelona).

With more than 1,400 concerts played and 7 albums released - achieving a platinum record for "Volcans" and a gold record for "Barcelona s'il·lumina"-, Buhos continues to build loyalty and increase their audience, becoming an incombustible group, able to connect with all generations. Performance after performance, they prove to the thousands of fans that fill each concert that Buhos are a guarantee of epic, emotions, party and call. That is why they are regular headliners of festivals and radio charts.

Els Catarres

Intangible heritage of Catalonia

NEW ALBUM AND NEW
TOUR 2025

Els Catarres are one of the greater responsables for the resurgence of the festive music of Catalan pop, an unrepeatable and iconic band of our country that has already achieved a gold record for the album "Big bang", thirteen Enderrock Awards, four ARC Awards and two awards for the Catalan Record of the year awarded by RNE. Only a few hesitate to say that they are the favorite and the most significant headliner in the history of modern music in Catalonia.

With their music and their energetic and festive live shows, they have become an essential soundtrack for the Catalan programmes and one of the great attractions for the public, having recently sold out the 4,500 tickets at the Sant Jordi Club or the 4,800 tickets for four consecutive dates at the Sala Apolo in Barcelona. In 2025, the band will release what will be their sixth studio album, which will be presented live in a new and exciting tour starting in the spring.

Figa Flawas

The new revolution of Catalan music

NEW EP AND NEW TOUR 2025

Figa Flawas has made everyone fall in love thanks to his freshness and uniqueness. Their songs are generational hymns that are sung by the whole audience in their multitudinous concerts, which together with suggestive choreographies and an impressive staging are one of the best shows in Catalonia today.

In their short career, the duo formed by Xavier Cartanyà and Pep Velasco has established itself as a group that has broken all the ceilings for the music in Catalan, revolutionizing the musical panorama of the whole Spain. Songs like "Mussegu", "Diabla", "Que no s'acabi" or "La Marina sta morena" with millions of plays to digital platforms, have achieved gold and platinum records, repeatedly entered the TOP 20 Viral of Spotify in Spain, and several TOPs 1 in the Catalan radios. After a stellar 2024 with a tour of more than 90 concerts, this 2025 Figa Flawas will surprise us again with a new EP and an ambitious presentation tour through stages all over Spain.

Els Amics de les Arts

20 years of success

Their impeccable and solid trajectory has turned 20 years of success, 20 candles that we will blow and celebrate this 2025. Els Amics de les Arts have always been a safe bet for quality, with a unique songbook and a unique live show that connects strongly with different generations.

Multifaceted and charismatic, the three authors say that they tell the story of their lives through their songs. And they always seem to talk about us. Compositions that have become hymns, such as "Jean Luc", "Ja no ens passa" or "Luisiana o els camps de cotó". As well as some newer songs that are already added to this list of great successes of the band, such as "Citant Mercè Rodoreda" or "Les paraules que triem no dir". They did not stop growing, in followers and consolidating an unbeatable career. This birthday year will be the time to remember everything they have done for Catalan music and how they have joined our lives all this time. Congratulations and for many more years, Amics!

Suu

The most awaited artist NEW ALBUM AND PRESENTATION TOUR 2025

Suu is one of the most representative young faces of female empowerment on stage. With three albums released, the artist has captivated a large audience - more than 200K followers on Instagram, more than 300k monthly listeners, and 2 gold albums for "Eres un temazo" and "Tant de bo" -; as well as the respect of the critics and the rest of her professional colleagues, thanks to her indie-pop proposal and her great charisma on stage, demonstrated at the most prestigious festivals of Spain and also on social networks.

This 2025, the Catalan singer will make us fall in love again with a new album full of hits that will tour the most prestigious festivals and towns all over Spain.

Ginestà

The heartbeat of Catalan pop

NEW EP AND NEW TOUR 2025

Ginestà are one of the most inspiring Catalan pop groups. The duo, formed by siblings Júlia and Pau Serrasolsas, with their latest album have once again thrilled and moved the entire Catalan audience with great hits like "De tot el món" or "La meva sort". With "Vida Meva" they have also won two Enderrock Awards and have established themselves as one of the essential bands of the moment.

During 2024, Ginestà has participated in great programs such as Strenes, Cruïlla, Canet Rock, L'Acústica or La Mercè, showing their capacity to make huge stages vibrate with a unique energy and festivity. This 2025, the band will release new songs in EP format and will take us back to the Catalan stages that will start with a sold out concert in Barcelona.

La Fúmiga

Valencian music references NEW SINGLES AND NEW TOUR 2025

La Fúmiga is currently the Valencian band of reference in the Catalan music scene. They have millions of plays on digital platforms and awards such as the Carles Santos IVC award or the Ovidi award for best "mestizaje" album. Their festive live shows, full of energy, vitality and social conscience, do not leave anyone indifferent.

With the release of their third album, "Tot està per fer", the band has become one of the essential names of the moment, selling out venues such as Sala Apolo or La Mirona and participating in festivals such as Festival de les Arts de València, Canet Rock, Cabró Rock or La Mercè in Barcelona. In total, more than 60 concerts in the last year. La Fúmiga is working on new singles for 2025, with the best rhythms and horn section, and a new tour that will continue to fill the festivals and squares of Catalonia.

Triquell

Unique personality and talent NEW ALBUM AND NEW TOUR 2025

Triquell is one of the most unique artists with the most personality of our country. In 2023 he released his debut album, "Entre Fluids", with which he captivated the public and critics, as well as being awarded the Enderrock critics award for best new album and the Rac105 award for best new band. With an unmistakable stylistic diversity, the artist combines rock and pop with electronic sounds that make his project unique and incomparable.

The strength and energy of his live performances have taken him to big festivals such as Itaca, Cruïlla, Strenes, Guitar BCN, Canet Rock or Cabró Rock. This 2025, Triquell is preparing a new tour, which we will be able to enjoy live throughout the country.

Lildami

The first of Catalan urban NEW ALBUM AND NEW TOUR 2025

Lildami is the main precursor of urban music sung in Catalan, being the only artist on the scene to have won the Cerverí Award for Best Lyrics and twice consecutively the Enderrock Award for Best Hip Hop and Urban Music Artist. With an extremely prolific and constantly evolving career, the artist is able to combine rap, pop and urban music conquering all kinds of audiences.

After two very intense years combining his artistic facet (with more than 80 concerts), with that as organizer of "Maleducats", the first urban music festival in Catalonia and as jury of the talent show "Eufòria" or with his own program "Cute", Lildami will present in 2025 his new album that we will experience live on the big stages of our country. Lildami, as always, unbeatable!

Sergi Carbonell

Poetic sensitivity turned into song

NEW ALBUM AND NEW TOUR 2025

Sergi Carbonell, the co-founder and one of the composers of Txarango, continues to build a whole poetic universe with his solo project. A commitment to sensitivity and poetry with a repertoire full of exciting songs that note by note are transformed into a cosmos as personal as sublime, combining joy in his band format and total tenderness in his intimate formats.

After surprising the public with his debut "Refugi" (2023) and the EP "Crisàlide" (2024), which earned him the cover of Enderrock magazine and a Climent Guitart Award, this season Sergi Carbonell opens the door to new corners of his universe with a new album and a new tour for the main theaters and festivals in Catalonia. A refined show that will captivate the hearts of all lovers of music and life.

Meritxell Nedderman

Pure magic and female empowerment

NEW TOUR 2025

Her skill in mixing genres with exquisiteness -classical music, jazz, funky and indie- and experimentation with loops, pedals and vocoder, have made Meritxell Neddermann one of the most recognized names in the Catalan music scene. With a sharpness and musical sensitivity unmatched, the pianist and singer from Vilassar de Mar has achieved a unique and ethereal sound, unique in our country, which has led her to be also Jorge Drexler's pianist.

Meritxell Neddermann has stunned and won the admiration of the public and specialized critics with two published albums - "In the Backyard of the Castle" (2020) and "Suelta" (2024); which have been followed by extensive tours throughout Spain, the United States and even Latin America. In 2025, he will surprise us again with a special show.

Habla de mí en presente

Technorumba is in fashion
NEW ALBUM AND NEW
TOUR 2025

Habla de mí presente is a group that leaves no one indifferent. The proposal of this boy band formed by musicians of Catalan, French and German origin has a personal style: technorumba. The union of Berlin techno with Catalan rumba, together with existentialist lyrics and a devastating live performance, transforms the proximity and "salero" of "bodega" rumba into a festive club on every stage.

With two albums released - "Vivir Más" (2022) and "De todo se sale" (2024) - the group has been awarded as a revelation group at the Rac 105 Awards, and has been on stages of prestigious Spanish festivals, and has crossed frontiers with performances in Germany, France, Italy, the Netherlands and even in India. This season, the international quintet presents a new EP and a new tour all over the world that will make everyone dance, living the present as if there were no tomorrow.

JULS

Girona's new promising talent

DEBUT ALBUM AND TOUR 2025

Juls is one of the most promising new emerging voices of the Catalan music scene. With the release of her first tracks, the artist from Girona has captivated thousands of people, making her songs go viral through social networks, especially on TikTok. Her style, which mixes pop with urban music, has managed to connect with young audiences and generate an idyll that promises many joys.

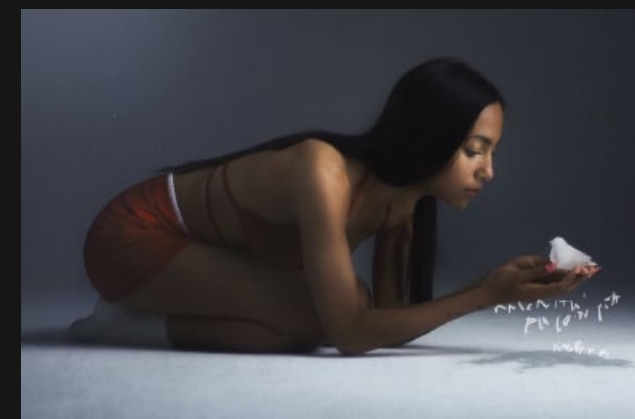

This September, Juls released the single "Papallones", the first preview of what will be her debut album, a work with which we notice that she will be positioned in the Catalan music scene as a great artist with the whole future ahead.

TOURS 2025

María Peláe

Art in its purest expression

María Peláe debuted with "Hipocondría" (2016), an album that took her to singer-songwriters' venues all over Spain. But it is in 2020 when she starts "La Niña" tour and begins this new stage, in which folklore, songwriter's song and "flamencura" are united by an international and innovative production. In 2022 she released her second album, "La Folcrónica", which won the Odeon award for Best Flamenco Album. Her versatility has led her to work in different kinds of shows, as well as to bring out her most television side, participating in successful programs such as "Tu Cara Me Suena".

In June 2023 she received the Arcoiris award from the Ministry of Equality for her fight and defense of the rights of the LGTBQ+ collective. A month later, the song "La Putukita", which would set a record in her career, was released, remaining for weeks in the Spanish trend and quickly reaching a million views in its video clip. This song would be the prelude to his latest album, "Al Baño María". After a stellar participation in the Benidorm Fest 2024, María Pélae returns to the stage with a tour throughout the state.

El Kanka

One of the most prolific singer-songwriters in Spain

Juan Gómez Canca, better known as El Kanka, is one of the most beloved artists of our music scene. Since the beginning of his career with "Lo mal que estoy y lo poco que me quejo" (2013), the singer-songwriter from Malaga has made a good handful of albums full of unforgettable songs like "Qué bello es vivir", "Querría, Por tu olor" and "Andalucía", among many others.

Now, after playing massive concerts and triumphing in the main festivals in Spain and Latin America, El Kanka returns with his new album "Cosas de los Vivientes" (Things of the Living).

Ismael Serrano

25 years of hits

Ismael Serrano surprises us again with a new show full of poetry, in which he invites the public to enjoy the privilege of listening, in addition to his usual hits, songs from his most recent album: "La Canción de nuestra vida". These songs will undoubtedly become new hymns to remember that effervescent time when we felt intensely alive and the future was ours.

On this new tour, the singer-songwriter will offer audiences a new musical experience, moving away from the conventional recital and going deeper into the theatrical approach that he has already advanced on previous tours.

Gabriela Richardson

The voice that made half the world fall in love with her releases new album

The success of "Hundred Miles" by electronic music producers Yall -which was the soundtrack to a campaign for a well-known clothing brand- suddenly made all eyes turn to a young voice with a unique timbre, that of Gabriela Richardson. It was 2015. Since then she has worked intensely to shape her solo career and, song by song, search for her own sound together with the best producers.

Tracks like "Don't talk to me" and "Hurricane" have begun to position her as an artist who, despite moving in the ephemeral terrain of electronic pop, has managed to impregnate everything she does with her own style where she mixes the hedonism of dance music with touches of melancholy and feminine empowerment attitude. Gabriela is preparing the release of her new album that will be released in 2025, in which producers such as Raül Refree or InnerCut have worked, and which features collaborations with renowned national and international artists.

DePol

With an innate talent, he presents himself as the new pop phenom

Pol Gutiérrez, 22 years old, born January 11, 2002 in Barcelona. He started playing the guitar when he was only 12 years old, almost out of boredom, in a self-taught way with an old instrument he had at home. A couple of years later, also in an autonomous way, he started singing. During these years he also learns to play the ukulele and the piano. In 2018 begins to compose music and lyrics as a form of expression to overcome his shyness about love.

Currently, the young artist who sounds in the most important radios of Spain and exceeds 1.5M monthly listeners to Spotify has several singles on the market as "Ibiza" or his well-known hit "Quién diría" which already exceeds 50M plays on platforms and has reached gold record. In addition, "Qué bonita" also accumulated more than 30 million listens. DePol, with an innate talent, is the breath of fresh air that the music scene needs so much.

JEDET

The earthquake that has shaken the networks, literature, series and music of Spain

JEDET, actress, singer, writer, activist, content creator and influencer. JEDET phenomenon is an earthquake that has shaken the networks, literature, series and, of course, the music of our country.. Her career as a singer begins 2017 when she releases her first single, "Reinas", with Ms Nina. At the same time she began her acting career in the series "Looser", appeared in "Paquita Salas" and was chosen to give life to Cristina La Veneno in "Veneno", in addition to put voice to the trailer and in the header of the series with her version of the song "Veneno pa' tu piel".

In 2022 she released her first album "A los hombres que he tenido que olvidar". "This work is a catharsis, it is my way of closing a stage, a love triangle in which I have been involved during these years. And through lyrics and music, to be able to heal the stormy relationships I have lived through and to look for hope to continue", Jedet assures. At the end of this period, Jedet presented her third and last album, "The Doll", in 2024.

El Niño de la Hipoteca

New show Guiu Cortés vs. El Niño de la Hipoteca

Known for his direct, forceful and fresh songs and lyrics, El Niño de la Hipoteca (Guiu Cortés' alter ego) has been a revolution in the music world for his groundbreaking ideas.

Constantly reinventing himself, both with his alter ego as a singer-songwriter as Guiu Cortés and with his El Niño de la Hipoteca band format focused on rocking on big stages, the artist from Barcelona has not stopped growing: he has more than 300,000 monthly listeners on Spotify, 120,000 subscribers on YouTube and more than 150,000 followers on social networks. An audience that has jumped and shouted their songs in prestigious festivals such as Viñarock, Sonorama or Rabolagartija, and venues such as Teatro Circo Prince in Madrid or L'Auditori de Barcelona.

This 2025, he surprises us again with a new show where he joins his unparalleled career with these two projects: Guiu Cortés vs. El Niño de la Hipoteca. A show that will not leave anyone indifferent and will be presented in an extensive tour of Spain and Catalonia.
